Puro

Following on from the continued success of white and black high gloss, we have now introduced a softer, more neutral high gloss product in an elegant "stone" colour. This contemporary range will appeal to all markets but include the previous missing customer base where the more stark black or white just didn't suit their taste.

Havana

Thanks to its seemingly timeless appeal, Pine simply never goes out of fashion.

So to ensure you're able to capitalise on the enduring popularity and undiminishing demand of the Havana bedroom range.

Boasting simple, understated almost shaker style lines, and a rich colour tone enhanced by an Aztec wax finish, the Collection is aimed at individuals wanting a contemporary twist on a principally traditional design theme.
